Council Appropriates $4,000 From Special Fund for That Purpose.

PAYS FOR ILLUMINATION.

Water Complaint-Damages Wanted No Double Tracks-Chas. H. Gates The New Poundkeeper.

The council last evening solved th problem in connection with the payment of the $4,000 appropriation to the Elks by drawing on the fund created for the construction of a new city jail to meet the present emergency. The plan was carried out just as outlined in the "News" last Saturday. After making the appropriation from the jail fund immediate steps were taken to secure additional revenue to replenish that fund by the passage of a resolution providing for the sale of the city's

City Auditor Reiser submitted the bill of the Salt Lake Electric Supply company, amounting to $4,000, for furnish ing 3,918 incandescent electric lights during the Elks' conventions. He called attention to the fact that, owing to he distressing financial condition of he city, it will be necessary to pro vide some special source of revenue to meet the bill. Hewlett wanted the matter referred to the finance com-mittee, as did also Eardley, Fernstrom and A. J. Davis could see no reason for a delay as the council had gone on record unanimously in favor of the appropriation and they thought it should be settled at once. moved that the communication be re seived and filed and that the bill be paid out of the new jail and crematory fund. The motion was carried over the negative votes of Hewlett and Eardley. Later in the evening Councilman Hewlett's resolution providing for re-advertising for bids for the purchase of the city croperty on State and First South streets was passed. The bids are to be opened on September 8.

TWO WATER COMPLAINTS.

Mary D. Smith and about 50 other residents and taxpayers residing in th Eleventh ward, called the council's at-tention to the fact that they are not getting irrigating water enough to keep their fruit trees and other vegetation alive, and asking that the matter be attended to at once and some relief granted. The petition was referred to the committee on Jordan canal and

Dr. J. T. Taylor and 17 other resi-dents of the Fifth precinct, living on Seventh Eas, between First and Sec-ond South streets, complained that for several years past they had been de-prived of sufficient water for culinary purposes for as much as 18 hours pe Petitioners state that they are being assessed at the present time for water taxes, and they think it an injustice to them that they are not allowed sufficient water and they ask that they be granted immediate relief. The matter was referred to the waterworks committee.

WANTS DAMAGES.

Edwin S. Bliss, who was thrown from his wheel on Friday night by running into a pile of paving stone on wes Second South street, causing him severe injuries, put in his claim to the ouncil of $2,000 damages for such injuries. The same was referred to the committee on claims.

NO DOUBLE TRACKS

The committee on streets reported against granting the Consolidated Railway and Power company permission to lay double tracks through Eagle late from South Temple to First street. The report was adopted.

A resolution was also introduced re stricting the railway company to only single track through Eagle Gate, but the point was raised that the could not compel the company to give up its right for running interlaced tracks through the gate as at present, so the resolution was filed.

NEW POUNDKEEPER.

Mayor Thompson submitted the appointment of Charles H. Gates as cit oundkeeper. The same was referred o the committee on markets. HARRIS CONFIRMED.

PURCHASE MORE LAND.

Upon resolution of Spence, the council appropriated $650 to the mayor's con-tingent fund for the purchase from Jens C. Nielsen of 80 acres of land in Parley's canyon.

CREMATORY NEEDS. City Health Commissioner King called attention to the necessity of providing a place for storing coal for the new crematory, as at present it is possible to store a carload of coal. He also asked that electric lights be installed at the crematory. The communication was referred to the sanitary committee.

ANOTHER HOLD-UP.

Alonzo Heath of Montana the Victim Of Two Highwaymen.

Another hold up was reported last night. Alonzo Heath of Montana was the victim of a couple of daring highwaymen, the robbery occurring Tuesday night while Mr. Heath was on his day night while Mr. Heath was on his way to his brother's on Apple street. It happened at the corner of West Temple and North Temple streets, the spot ham; A. J. Carrington, Ogden; E.

where other robberies have taken place The gentleman, who come here about weeks ago, had been out to Saltair and returned on the last train. He decided to walk to his brother's, and had reached the point stated when two men suddenly confronted him, shoved revolvers in his face and commanded him to throw up his hands. He lost no time in complying with the order and while one robber held a gun on him, the other went through his pock-ets, taking $8.75, but in the darkness they missed a gold watch and chain. After completing their search highwaymen ordered Heath to go home and behave. They threatened dire vengeance if he breathed a word of it to the police,

STAKE CONFERENCE.

Robbery Occurred on the Train Last Night-One Man Beaten.

FOUR MEN HELD UP.

Four men were held up last evening n the train while returning from Murray. The men had boarded a freight car and were taking things easily when two men entered the car, and flourish ng revolvers told the men to throw up their hands. One of the men either did not understand or refused to do as told, and was struck a vicious blow on the head with the butt end of a revolver. The name of the man who was assaulted is Claude Drew. The others gave their names as Pat Devaney Harry Cavanaugh and Horace Thurber They are from Park City. The robbers secured about $30.

AS TO CIVIL SERVICE.

Something as to the Rules Under Which Removals Can Be Made.

The impression that has prevailed mong the public in general, that it is very hard matter to oust a person from a position held under the United States civil service rule and that a great deal of red tape, such as filing harges in writing, testimony of witcesses of incompetency, etc., has to be one through with before a person can discharged, will necessarily hanged somewhat when the construct tion placed upon such matters by Prest. Roosevelt is read.

Section eight of civil service rule o, requires in substance that writ ten charges be made against person cought to be removed from the service for just cause; that a notice of the and he shall have a reasonable time answer the charges. On Aug. 12, 1992, Prest. Roosevelt submitted the following ruling to the

'nited States treasury department the construction to be placed on that section, which shows where the Prest. ands on the civil service question 'Now, for the purpose of preventing il such misunderstandings and improper constructions of said section, i s hereby declared that the term "just ause," as used in section 8, civil ser vice rule 2, is intended to mean any cause, other than one merely political or religious, which will promote the efficiency of the service; and nothing ontained in said rule shall be con-
